Presidents Message

By Audrey Flood

This year has flown by! Thank you for being part of my adventure as 2008 President of the Auburn Fly-casters. I have had fun learning new techniques, fishing new waters, and getting to know many of you better.

I would like to thank this year's officers for their dedication to the club. Vice President Dave Reese, Secretary Mike Sexton, Treasurer Bob Dillman and Past President Bryan Woodhouse have all helped make this year happen. Dave Flood maintained our website and Diana Hale made arrangements with local fly shops to supply our new members with a few free flies.

Mike Sexton has gone above and beyond by publishing this newsletter. He has done a GREAT job and deserves a big round of applause!!!

Our fish out leaders included Larry Goodell, Dave Flood, Don Steffa, Mike Sexton, Ed Cummings, Bill Heyenbruck, Dave Reese and me. Thanks to all for sharing your knowledge of the different areas we explored as well as your fly-fishing skills.

We also had some clinics this year: Steelhead by Tom Kastner, Casting by Jim Victorine, Gear Check Up by Larry Goodell, Shad by Al Smatsky, and in November Knot Tying with Phil Meyer. These folks shared their skill set to help us improve our abilities and we all enjoyed learning from them and appreciate their time to teach us.

Our meetings included presentations by Dave Reese and Don Steffa on the history of fly fishing, a Jim Teeny video on Steelhead, Bill Carnazzo spoke about salt water fishing in Mexico, Jerry Devlin shared his Rock Creek adventure with us, Grant Fraser presented caddis, Al Smatsky talked about how to choose a fly fishing destination, Dave and I shared our Idaho and backpacking adventure, and Barbara Banyon will speak in November. We had a swap meet and in December we will have our annual pot luck.

As you can see from this recap, it takes a lot of people to keep our club going. I encourage you to consider becoming a part of the "entertainment committee", otherwise known as officers. It is an adventure, and as I look back I am proud of this year.

Thanks aud
